Loving God,

We pray for all those who are being baptised, or considering baptism. In your love you have called us to know you, led us to trust you, and bound our life with yours. Surround all those being baptised with your love, fill them with your Spirit that they walk the way of Christ, and grow in the knowledge of your love. Amen

Coming up....

This afternoon we have our first Messy Church of this year. The theme is Creation and all are welcome. Join us at St Alban's at 4pm for food, fun, worship and craft (not necessarily in that order) as we celebrate Creation.

On Tuesday we have our regular Community hub at St Alban's – it is from 8.30am until 12noon and, this week, we are joined by a representative from Citizens Advice. We have the usual warm drinks, snacks and chat. After the Hub we have our monthly service of Holy Communion. Again, you would be most welcome.

Scripture through Art continues each Wednesday evening on zoom at 7pm. When lent begins- and Easter is quite late this year – we pause the group for our twice-weekly lent course. More on that to follow.

Next Sunday, the 23rd February, we have another Book of Common Prayer Communion at St Alban's at 3pm. This is a short, said service using very traditional language. If you have never experienced this service why not come along?

Look out for two things in March – the monthly men's brunch on the first Saturday of the month at St Alban's, and our boot fayre on the second Saturday of the month, at St Edmund's.
